Cultural Snapshot/Historical Background

In continuing his dialogue about the church gathering, Paul shifts his attention to spiritual gifts. In chapter 11, Paul again speaks against the divisions that are amongst the brethren (v. 18-19) and this overarching theme spills into chapter 12. While acknowledging there many different types of people in the church, Paul also talks about us all being under the same Spirit (v4). We are all one body and each of us are individual parts. With that comes the different gifts bestowed upon the believers for the benefit of the church and the edification of the church body.
